

Can't Find the Book or Movie You're Looking For?

Ask your Librarian about Interlibrary Loan!

Interlibrary Loan services can help you access books from cooperating libraries around the country, expanding the your local library's collection as far as your imagination! From movies and ready to use book club kits, to out-of-print popular fiction and non-fiction resources on countless topics, your local library has allies both in and out of state working to provide you access to the materials you want.

This service cannot guarantee access to all requested material. Every lending library determines the terms and conditions for borrowing their materials, including due dates and restrictions such as in-library use only.
